Cascina Bordino

Barbaresco Riserva

DOCG

2013

The grapes that go into Barbaresco Riserva DOCG Cascina Bordino are harvested in the winery's vineyards of the same name, located on the eastern side of the municipality of Treiso. These are among the vineyards with the best exposure on the whole hill, characterised by a steep slope and sandy soil with silty grey marly inserts making for a lean, compact soil. The Cascina Bordino vineyards have a great vocation for quality wine-making, producing Nebbiolo grapes appropriate for long ageing on the skins. The result is a wine that stands out for its aromatic intensity, elegance and complexity, a Barbaresco that encloses and expresses the company's long history and passion for great Nebbiolo wines.

Grape: 100% nebbiolo (70 q/Ha)

Refining: at least 50 months from November 1 of the year of the harvest, including at least 9 months in oak barrels.

Colour: bright garnet red.

Aroma: intense, with aromas of wild rose, violet and ripe red fruit accompanied by spicy and ethereal notes.

Taste: elegant, complex, full and rich in fruit, graciously expressing dense, silky tannins. Very well-balanced and drinkable.

Food pairings: red meats, braised meats, rich pasta and rice dishes, wild game, aged cheeses.
